EDITORIAL NOTE

In order to achieve maximum efficiency in the use of scientific information published in the Brazilian Journal of Biology®, the Editorial Board has decided to promote the electronic publication of papers as soon as these papers are ready. This will speed up the dissemination of papers. Regular numbers published in February, May, August and November will be issued as usual. The Editorial Board urges the Advisory Board, research workers, and research institutes to propose special numbers that are within the conceptual framework of the Brazilian Journal of Biology®.
